How we T apped the Burglar

We lived in a Terrace at the time is which my tale is bid, in what we meterm a sub-district of the city, for we were within five miles of Charm's Cross and the dark month of December was upon us. Robberies had been frequen in our neighborhood, and no less than three houses out of the ten in the Terrachad been entered by burglars and robbed and yet no discovery of the thickes has taken place. So ably, also, had the work of entry been accomplished, that in m ease had the inmates been alarmed; and it was not until the servants descended in the morning that the discovery of a rob-

In two out of the three cases, an en trance had been effected through a pantry-window, by removing a pane of glass, and cutting a small hole in the shutter This window was on the ground-floor, and could easily be reached, therefore, from outside. In the third robbery, an upper window was entered by means of a knife which forced back the fastening, and of course allowed the sash to be raised.

So rapidly had these robberies occurred that the whole neighborhood was alarmed. The police shook their heads, and looked knowing, but did nothing; and what was much to be lamented, failed to find same time asserted, were evidently not
